GEORGETOWN MEETS WESLEYAN TODAY

Hilltoppers Look for Gruelling Contest with West Virginians.

Coach Exendine and his band of Georgetown football players are looking for one of the hardest games of the season when they meet West Virginia Wesleyan on the hilltop this afternoon. The first string men are still showing signs of their gruelling contest with Fordham in New York last Tuesday and Exendine would venture no prediction on the result of today's game.

It is understood that Wesleyan will be without the services of Capt. Miller, who is out of the game on account of injuries, but otherwise will present their varsity line-up. Unless Coach Exendine makes a last minute shift, the Blue and Gray will start with Sullivan at quarter in place of Maloney, and Leighty at right half in place of McQuade.

The Georgetown authorities have made a change in the time of starting games remaining on the schedule, and today's battle is carded for 2:30. The probable line-up of the two teams follows:

WESLEYAN	Position	GEORGETOWN
Morrison	L. E.	Osack
Techapatt	L. T.	McCarthy

HARVARD FAVORITES IN PRINCETON GAME

New York, Nov. 10.—Harvard should be Princeton tomorrow in the Cambridge clash. This is the consensus of opinion among the "experts" who are

JIMMY SHAW HERE TO SIGN CONTRACT

Jimmy Shaw, the big right hand pitcher of the Nationals, was a visitor here yesterday, and was an interesting spectator at the Central-Technical game at American League Park.

Shaw is here to close out with Manager Griffith for the 1917 season. Jimmy's contract expired last October, and the "Old Fox" is anxious to get him under his wing for another term. Shaw will close out with Manager Griffith today. Jimmy denies the story printed a few days ago that John McGraw was bidding for his services, as he is perfectly satisfied here and knows nothing about going with the Giants.

exuding comments concerning the first battle involving the "big three" of the East.

On comparative showings against the same foe Princeton would seem to be stronger. But those records were compiled before Percival Haughton got back on the job and transformed the Crimson team from one that was mediocre to one that is powerful in every department of play.

Tufts beat Harvard 7 to 3 and a bit later Princeton defeated Tufts 3 to 0. But that shouldn't be reckoned in Princeton's favor as regards tomorrow's frolic. The Crimsonites have come forward with a tremendous rush since then, while Princeton now, as then, lacks a line-smashing backfield.

The Tigers, pitted against only ordinary foes, haven't shown much attacking power. Tibbott, Driggs, Eddy, Moore, Ames—all are good back field men. But none is an all-around star. None can be counted upon to rip holes in the opposition wall with any frequency. And unless Princeton's back field shows surprising reversal tomorrow, it probably will be given a noticeable beating by Harvard's well-rounded machine.

Bob Mohs, the Western heavy-weight, has two battles on hand. Tuesday night he meets Billy Burke and November 23 he boxes Tom Cowler. Both are ten-round contests.

HOT BATTLE TODAY ON BROOKLAND FIELD

Catholic University Meets Maryland State in Crucial Contest.

Local football followers are awaiting anxiously for the sounding of the opening whistle that will send the Maryland State College team into action today at Brookland Campus. Football fans in this vicinity are anticipating some hot battle, and the game should be a corker as both elevens are tuned up to the minute for the contest.

About the best comparison on the two elevens can be obtained on the results of their contests with the Virginia Military Institute from Lexington, Va.

Curly Byrd's State warriors won from V. M. I. on October 21, 15 to 2, and C. U. gained a verdict over the Lexingtonians Saturday on the loser's field, 16 to 14. However, State faced the V. M. I. team in a recent win in better condition, the latter's contest with North Carolina on October 21 putting a number of the Virginians on the injured list, and they did not have their full strength against the Brooklanders.

But it must also be taken into consideration that Catholic University played V. M. I. at Lexington, Va., where the Cadets had not been beaten before for three years, while State engaged the latter at College Park. No matter, though, how you look at it, the game Saturday should be one of the best staged hereabout this season.

URAIKE-KEYSER BOUT TO PROVIDE ACTION

A bout that promises plenty of action will be staged at Ardmore next Thursday night, when Mike Uraike, the well known local battler, and Faye Keyser, the undefeated champion from Cumberland, Md., hook up in a fifteen-round go under the auspices of the Maryland Athletic and Social Club.

This match, which has been hanging fire for some time, was put through last night when "Jack" Snyder, the Cumberland miner's manager, and Joe Oliver, manager of the club, acting for Uraike, signed the articles which call for fifteen rounds, 158 pounds to be made at 6 o'clock.

In the semi-final Turk Smith and Joe Blackburn, two equally well known local colored scrappers, are scheduled to go ten rounds at 133 pounds, while Patsy Donovan and Kid Scotty, of Baltimore, are down to mix things up for six rounds at 106 pounds. Manager Oliver, as usual, has added the battle royal with Toots Brown as one of the principals.

Arrangements have been made with the Washington, Baltimore & Annapolis Electric line in regards to the transportation to and from Ardmore, and the promoters have been promised that a sufficient number of cars will be provided to handle the crowd.

STOVALL MAY MANAGE CHICAGO WHITE SOX

Chicago, Nov. 10.—The latest baseball rumor here is that Jack Hendricks will succeed Joe Tinker as manager of the Cubs, while George Stovall will take Clarence Rowland's place as boss of the White Sox.

CENTRAL OUTLOOKS TECH HIGH ELEVEN

O Streeters Get the "Breaks" and Trim Manual Trainers, 7 to 0.

By JACK EASTEN.
Captain of Technical High 1916 Team.
Central High eleven must have found eleven horse shoes on its way to American League Park yesterday, as all the breaks that could happen in a gridiron team, along with luck unthought of, sent the Technical High team down to defeat at their hands by a 7 to 0 score.

Even with all the breaks against us the worst that Tech should have had was a scoreless tie, as Sam Gottlieb's long run after picking up a fumble ball, gave the Central team its margin of points.

From the opening whistle until the call of time Central had all the so-called breaks. Shortly after the opening of the first period Tech obtained the ball in mid-field and pounded the Central line for consistent gains and our whirlwind attack was only halted when Bowler fumbled on the 3-yard line and Gottlieb picked up the ball and raced 97 yards for a touchdown.

This touchdown was a heart-breaker for Tech rooters and even in the second half when our teammates were making a game up-hill fight to overtake these O Streeters, the "jinx" seemed to hang with us and when the final whistle sounded we were beaten by being outlucked but not outplayed.

According to statistics the Manual Trainers made eight first downs during the game to five registered by the O Streeters, while Wilson, of the Maroon and Gray, out-bowed Gottlieb on every exchange.

Seven aerial heaves were tried by Central, but not one was completed. Snyder and Bowler intercepting two of these passes, Tech attempted to grab the game out of the fire in the last two minutes and three forward heaves were attempted. Two were completed, from Snyder to Carpenter, which netted us 45 yards, but Full Back Long, of the O Streeters, intercepted our third attempt, killing our chances of evening the count.

The playing of Barnes and Clarke in the Technical lines was one of the big features, while Long, Gottlieb and Johnny Sexton played best for Central. The summary:

TECH.	Position	CENTRAL
Carpenter	L. E.	(capt.) Sexton
Harnes	L. T.	Bidwell
Easter (capt.)	L. G.	Ramsay
Parker	Center	Nash
Guerrier	R. G.	Hoagland
Clarke	R. T.	Taber
Flannigan	R. E.	Harard
Schneider	Q. B.	Guy
Rowley	L. H. B.	Strubaker
Wilson	R. H. B.	Gottlieb
Snyder	F. B.	Sexton

Substitutions—Central: Roberts for Hoagland, McKinley for Guy, Guy for McKinley, Clifford for Kaxon; Technical: Myers for Schneider, Dodge for Flannigan, Kove for Harard. Head linesmen—Lent, Shaffert, Navy. Time of periods—10 minutes each.

GENERALS PICKED TO WIN BIG RACE

Watch Washington and Lee! That is the cry of the teams entered in the South Atlantic Association's Intercollegiate championship cross-country race booked over the Catholic University course at Brookland today.

Forrest Fletcher, who has been grooming the Generals for this race, has whipped an excellent team into shape. In a recent spin over a six-mile course five of the seven men who will represent the Lexington, Ky., institution finished within 23 seconds of one another. No time was given out, but it is said that Coach Fletcher has advised his friends to place a bet on W. and L. winning the team laurels.

Joseph Townsend Hopkins, who has been grooming Johns Hopkins team for the race, has decided to bring the following to Brookland: Defendorf, Schaum, Edgett, Bernhard, Elliott, E. L. Smith, Perkins, and Wickett.

University of Virginia will send a full team to Brookland, while Catholic University will also enter a big squad. Georgetown, too, has been making an effort to gather a team, but its efforts have not met with much success. Virginia Polytechnic Institute may also participate in the big race.

The race will start shortly after 2 o'clock and it is planned to have the finish in front of the stand between the halves of the Catholic University-Maryland State football game.

HIGHLANDS TO PLAY THE TRUXTON ELEVEN

The strong Highland eleven has recovered from its defeat at the hands of the Mohawks last Sunday, and will journey up to Truxton Field tomorrow to settle issue with that fast team of youngsters, who have thus far made such a creditable showing. The Truxtons will be outwheeled probably 15 pounds to the man, but Capt. Flester is relying on the speed and aggressiveness of his backs and ends, and hopes to be able to give the Anacostians an exceptionally good battle.

The Truxtons have not to date been second on, and if the stand between the halves of the contest booked for Sunday, the boys will be found straining every effort to hold their own.

SHORT GRASS FIRST IN PIMILICO FEATURE

Lands Bowie Handicap from Classy Field at Hilltop Course.

By GEORGE B. MORRIS.
Pimlico Race Track, Md., Oct. 10.—Emil Herz's imported Short Grass showed his true class today when he easily won the Bowie Handicap and in so doing enriched his owner about $4,000. Eight horses faced the flag for this number. Berrillon, an imported horse, was looked upon as having a good chance to annex this stake, but when it came to running there was nothing to it but Short Grass. Airman was second and Half Rock third. Fair Mac had an extremely rough journey and would have been up closer had he not been knocked back all through the stretch.

Two Washington women profited handsomely on the victory of Mary Powell in the fourth race, when the Gifford Cochran horse led all the way to win by two lengths from Priscilla Mullens and Sea Urchin. It is said that these women had a wager of four numbers on the winner.

Benevolence had an easy task winning the Roland Park Handicap from Oratorum and Col. Vennle, and at the finish the Lewisham gelding was just galloping with 16 pounds on his back.

Sweeter Than Sugar won the initial event at the longest price of the day. Daybreak was second and Bar of Phoenix third. Merchant and Bright Star, the two public choices, finished out of the money. Summaries:
